(Prior code 7-1-1; Ord. 7 §1, 2010)

Whenever it is required by law, or deemed desirable by the Board of Trustees, that any contract of the Town for construction work, services, equipment, supplies or other thing be let upon bids, the procedure for obtaining such bids shall be as follows:

(1) Notice to bidders. The Town Clerk shall cause notice of the proposal for bids to be published in a newspaper of general circulation within the Town or be published in three (3) conspicuous places within the Town for two (2) publications. The last publication shall be not more than ten (10) days nor less than five (5) days prior to the date set for the opening of the bids. Such notice may also be published in any other publication of limited circulation or trade journal designated by the Board of Trustees. The Town Clerk shall mail copies of such notice to a reasonable number of persons who could reasonably be expected to make a bid, if so directed by the Board of Trustees. Wherever a larger number of publications is required by state law or this Code, such requirements shall be followed. Upon such acceptance, the Board of Trustees shall award the contract to the successful bidder upon his or her furnishing the necessary performance bond and complying with the other requirements which have been determined by the Board of Trustees and set forth in the proposal. When such an award has been made, the bid bonds of other bidders shall be returned. (Prior code 7-1-2; Ord. 7 §1, 2010)

Any person entering into a contract with the Town for the construction of any public building or the prosecution or completion of any public work, or for repairs upon any public building or public work, shall be required, before commencing work, to execute, in addition to all bonds that may now or hereafter be required of him or her, a penal bond, with good and sufficient surety or sureties, to be approved by the Board of Trustees, conditioned that such contractor shall promptly make payments of all amounts lawfully due to all persons supplying or furnishing him or her, or his or her contractor or subcontractors with labor or materials, used or performed in the prosecution of the work provided for in such contract, and will indemnify the Town to the extent of any and all payments in connection with the carrying out of such contracts which the Town may be required to make under the law. (Prior code 7-1-3; Ord. 7 §1, 2010)

Sec. 4-3-40. Procedure when bidder defaults.

If the person whose bid was accepted by the Town fails to enter into a contract, such person's bid bond shall be forfeited to the Town, and the Board of Trustees may then accept the bid of the next lowest reliable and responsible bidder or reject all bids as in its judgment may be best for the interests of the Town. (Prior code 7-1-4; Ord. 7 §1, 2010)

Sec. 4-3-50. Financial interest.

Neither the Board of Trustees nor any employee of the Town shall have any personal beneficial interest either directly or indirectly in any purchase made by the Town nor in any person furnishing or

Sec. 4-5-10. Declaration of purpose.

The Board of Trustees hereby finds, determines and declares:

(1) For the purposes of this Article, every person who furnishes lodging for consideration in the Town is exercising a taxable privilege. (3) The provision of lodging to the traveling public results in the increased use upon municipal services and utilities in the Town and has substantial effect upon the health, safety and welfare of the citizens of the Town and upon expenditures budgeted by the Town for recreation, infrastructure and public improvements which is a matter of local concern.

(4) The imposition of this lodging tax of three percent (3%), and the expenditure of receipts of such tax for the promotion of recreation, enhanced public facilities and infrastructure will serve a public purpose and will promote the health, safety, prosperity, security and general welfare of the inhabitants and visitors of the Town.

(5) The classification of the provision of lodging as separate businesses and occupations is reasonable, proper, uniform, nondiscriminatory and necessary. (Ord. 15 §1, 2008; Ord. 7 §1, 2010)

(b) The burden of proving that any transaction is exempt from the tax shall be upon the vendor.

If at any time the Town Clerk determines that the amount paid is less than the amount due under this Article, the difference, together with interest at the rate of one and one-half percent (1½%), assessed from the date such amount was first due, shall be paid by the vendor within ten (10) days after receiving written notice and demand from the Town Clerk. The Town Clerk may extend that time for good cause. (Ord 15 §1, 2008; Ord. 7 §1, 2010)

Sec. 4-5-70. Tax information confidential.

(a) All specific information gained under the provisions of this Article which is used to determine the tax due from a taxpayer, whether furnished by the taxpayer or obtained through audit, shall be treated by the Town and its officers, employees or legal representative as confidential.

Except as directed by judicial order or as provided in this Article, no Town officer, employee or legal representative shall divulge any confidential information. If directed by judicial order, the officials charged with the custody of such information shall be required to provide only such information as is directly involved in the action or proceeding. Any Town officer or employee who shall knowingly divulge any information classified herein as confidential, in any manner, except in accordance with proper judicial order, or as otherwise provided in this Article or by law, shall be guilty of a violation hereof, punishable by a fine but not imprisonment.

(b) The Town Clerk may furnish to officials of any other governmental entity who may be owed sales tax any confidential information, provided that such jurisdiction enters into an agreement with the Town to grant reciprocal privileges to the Town.

(c) Nothing contained in this Section shall be construed to prohibit the delivery to the taxpayer or his or her duly authorized representative a copy of such confidential information relating to such taxpayer.

(d) So long as there are more than three (3) taxpayers, nothing contained in this Section shall be construed to prohibit the publication of statistics so classified as to prevent the identification of particular taxpayers, the publication of the aggregate revenues generated by the tax or the inspection of such confidential information by an officer, employee or legal representative of the Town. (Ord. 15 §1, 2008; Ord. 7 §1, 2010)

(2) The records which vendors providing lodging are to keep concerning the tax imposed by this Article. (Ord. 15 §1, 2008; Ord. 7 §1, 2010)

Sec. 4-5-90. Enforcement and penalties.

(a) It shall be unlawful for any person to intentionally, knowingly or recklessly fail to pay the tax imposed by this Article or to make any false or fraudulent return, or for any person to otherwise violate any provisions of this Article. Any person convicted of a violation of this Article shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction, shall be punished in accordance with the provisions of Section 1-4-20 of this Code. Each day, or portion thereof; that any violation of this Article continues shall constitute a separate offense.

(b) A penalty in the amount of ten percent (10%) of the tax due or the sum of ten dollars ($10.00), whichever is greater, shall be imposed upon the vendor and become due in the event the tax is not remitted by the tenth day of the month as required by this Article, or such other date as prescribed in writing by the Town Clerk, and one and one-half percent (1½%) interest shall accrue each month on the unpaid balance. The Town Clerk is hereby authorized to waive, for good cause shown, any penalty assessed.

(c) If any part of a deficiency is due to fraud with the intent to evade the tax, then there shall be added fifty percent (50%) of the total amount of the deficiency. The penalty under this Subsection shall be in addition to the penalty under Subsection (b) above, and, in all cases, the whole amount of the unpaid tax, together with all penalties and interest, shall become due and payable ten (10) days after written explanation and demand by the Town Clerk or the County. (Ord. 15 §1, 2008; Ord. 7 §1, 2010)

Sec. 4-5-100. Tax lien.

(a) The tax imposed by this Article, together with the interest and penalties herein provided and the costs of collection which may be incurred, shall be and, until paid, remain a first and prior lien superior to all other liens on all the tangible personal property of a taxpayer within the Town and may be foreclosed by seizing under distraint warrant and selling so much thereof as may be necessary to discharge the lien. Such distraint warrant may be issued by the Town Clerk whenever the taxpayer is in default in the payment of the tax, interest, penalty or costs. Such warrant may be served and the goods subject to such lien seized by any police officer, the county sheriff of the county wherein the property may be located or any duly authorized employee of the Town. The property so seized may be sold by the agency seizing the same or by the Town Clerk at public auction after ten (10) days have passed following an advertised notice in a newspaper published in the Town, in the same manner as is prescribed by law in respect to executions against property upon judgment of a court of record. The remedies of garnishment shall apply.

(b) The tax imposed by this Article shall be and remain a first and prior lien, except as otherwise provided by law, superior to all other liens on the real property and appurtenant premises at which the taxable transactions occurred. (Ord. 15 §1, 2008; Ord. 7 §1, 2010)

Sec. 4-5-110. Recovery of unpaid tax.

(a) The Town Clerk may also treat any such taxes, penalties, costs or interest due and unpaid as a debt due the Town from the taxpayer.

(b) In case of failure to pay the taxes, any portion thereof or any penalty, costs or interest thereon when due, the Town Clerk may recover at law the amount of such taxes, penalties, costs, the reasonable value of any attorney's time or the reasonable attorneys' fees charged, plus interest, in any county or district court of the county wherein the taxpayer resides or had a principal place of business (at the time the tax became due) having jurisdiction of the amount sought to be collected.

(c) The tax return of the taxpayer or the assessment made by the Town Clerk shall be prima facie proof of the amount due.

(d) Such actions may be actions in attachment, and writs of attachment may be issued to the town or the county sheriff of the county wherein the property may be located, as the case may be, and in any such proceeding no bond shall be required of the Town Clerk, nor shall any police officer or sheriff require of the Town Clerk an indemnifying bond for executing the writ of attachment or writ

Sec. 4-5-120. Status of unpaid tax in bankruptcy and receivership.

When the witness is subpoenaed at the instance of any party to any such proceeding, the Town Clerk may require that the cost of service of the subpoena and the fee of the witness be borne by the party at whose instance the witness is summoned; and, in such case, the Town Clerk may require a deposit to cover the cost of such service and witness fees. A subpoena issued as aforesaid shall be served in the same manner as a subpoena issued out of a court of record.

(b) Upon application, the Town Clerk may compel the attendance of witnesses, the production of books, papers, records or memoranda and the giving of testimony before the Town Clerk or duly authorized hearing officers, by an action for contempt or otherwise, in the same manner as production of evidence may be compelled before the Court. Sec. 4-5-150. Depositions.

The Town Clerk or any party in an investigation or hearing may cause the deposition of witnesses residing within or outside the State to be taken in the manner prescribed by law for like depositions in civil actions in courts of this State and, to that end, compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers, records or memoranda. (Ord. 15 §1, 2008; Ord. 7 §1, 2010)

Nor shall any lien continue after such period, except for taxes assessed before the expiration of such three-year period, notice of lien with respect to which has been filed prior to the expiration of such period.

(b) In case of a false or fraudulent return with intent to evade taxation, the tax, together with interest and penalties thereon, may be assessed, or proceedings for the collection of such taxes may be commenced at any time.

(c) Before the expiration of such period of limitation, the taxpayer and the Town Clerk may agree in writing to an extension thereof, and the period so agreed on may be extended by subsequent agreements in writing. (Ord. 15 §1, 2008; Ord. 7 §1, 2010)
